* Art Masters Appreciation©

Stage for Kids International Camps / Workshops

Our camps and workshops run in both local and international early-learner schools during school holidays and term breaks. These camps and workshops range between a one-day session to 5-day daytime camps, lasting a few hours a day. We will work with you on the number of hours per day.

Campers and educators work towards achieving educational targets and life and skill-enriching goals; through our Station Rotation System filled with various dramatic learning modules.

The list below are curriculum themes available for camp/workshop for the period between March 2018 to December 2019.

Each theme carries within itself various learning objectives; as seen below, a brief description of each theme is provided alongside the base literary material (for Dramatic Speech with Theatrics) or art master/theme (for Art Masters Appreciation).

We recommend selecting an individual theme for each camp session; to allow a more in-depth exploration, or if you wish, you may combine two themes together. The camp/workshop length may also affect this decision.

Dramatic Speech & Theatrics Program Based Camp/Workshop Themes

Annie the Musical

A classic from the 80s, Annie the Musical is a story of hope, positivity and friendship. In this camp theme; little dramatics immerse in topics (What does 'Orphan' mean? Where do orphans live?) and subjects (The importance of being positive / To learn to tolerate, understand and embrace diversity) to build understanding and learn the importance of certain virtues such as empathy, patience and kindness.

Campers are encouraged to contribute to the creative process of re-imagining Annie's story through literacy and theatre-based modules including Role-Play, Monologue/Dialogue, Storytime Read-aloud and Emotion-in-Motion.

What's in the Bag, Mr. Mysterious?

Mystery and suspense abound in this educational adventure as campers and teachers attempt to solve challenging situations, and work on critical thinking skills to answer various questions! Plenty of movements for campers, and plenty of speaking out! Would we make excellent detectives? The only way to know is to join our Circle, Storytime, Dramatization and theatre-based games and more!

Books and characters to include; Where's Wally, Jacob's Ladder and the The Paper Dolls.

That's my Shadow – Shadow Play

Campers crank up their imaginative and creative skills through shadow and puppet play in camp curriculum, 'That's My Shadow – Shadow Play'. Integrated with MOE's STELLAR program, children will have plenty of opportunities to work on various educational and self-skill sets in dramatic fashion.

Activities to include play-acting, dramatization, poetry, fun and games, crafts, story time, movement and dance, and outdoor activities through and other theatre-based modules. Skills to work on include language learning, spelling, speech and projection, confidence in self and peers, imagination, creativity, collaborative work with peers and educators, exploration of drama/theatre activities, social skills and more.

I Want to be a Dinosaur

In 'I Want to Be a Dinosaur' – campers go on a Jurassic journey of language (Literacy/Speech/Presentation) and dramatization through tales of various sizes, literacy projects for various age groups, join in our in-house produced songs and participate in theatre games to help in bringing forth the best that we can be.

Key Words: History / Sizes / Measurements / Measuring Up / Past, Present & Future / "I Want to be" / Dreams & Goals / My Dinosaur

Activities during camp/workshop would also include and work on; storytelling, play-acting, dramatization and exposure to musicals/music, brainstorming, fun and games, magic time, movement and dance, life skills, confidence and public speaking skills, leadership and ability to lead, and outdoor activities (when available).

Art Masters Appreciation Program Based Camp/Workshop Themes

Tribal Africa!

Get Up on Your Feet – and to Everyone You Meet – this Time in Africa! Campers go west to the African continent to learn about the various African countries while immersed in age-appropriate folktales and events /celebrations to learn about their art culture.

The art exploration includes the study of pictures, videos, and books to both encourage creative expression, and allow the understanding of art in the life of another.

Children then build upon their art camp experience by merging what they have learned and integrating their own artistic opinions and ideas through the creation of their very own tribal village of people, animals, homes, and the natural surrounding; an art project to take home and share what they have learned, and created.

The Art Superhero!

In this age of Superheroes, one cannot help but get on the heroic bandwagon with The Art Superhero! Art Masters turn superhero in creating their own journey of adventure in art and craft – while charting their story from beginning to end. Campers collaborate with teachers to create their very own superhero story while matching appropriate projects to both build and enhance their own experience. Art projects to include; Superhero masks / Super Capes – Soar like a hero! / Power Bands; What's your Power? ... And more.

Henri Matisse Does Not have Fleas!

Henri Matisse is known to be fond of bright and expressive colors – and this is highlighted in the curriculum where Little Artists are encouraged to display their inner expression through various art project(s).

Colors abound; children participate in activities that help them learn more about color mixing, color emotion and attempt to describing art through words. This involves plenty of self-expression, critical thinking and boosting of artistic confidence.

In addition; Campers explore art in words and rhyme; integrated into their camp adventures! Let the artistic fun times begin!

Pablo Picasso, Doves & Me!

Life and inspiration begin from a seed; this is how we ignite ideas and creativity in our children – through planting artistic seeds in the classroom. In Pablo Picasso, Doves & Me, we introduce/re-introduce one of the greatest artists of the 20th century; Pablo Picasso.

Other than immersing in stories of his life from childhood to his journey in art; children get to create projects that mimic his art work and, also projects that allow campers to imprint their very own creative ideas, inner expression and likes, and understand that art is not limited to just one idea, color or shape. This in addition to the theme of peace and love; a representation of the Dove – the bird of peace.

Stage for Kids International

Inculcating a dramatic, educational and holistic life of culture, freedom of creativity, confidence in self-expression and sharing of voices; whilst on a journey through the arts and literacy.

Stage for Kids International provides exceptional Enrichment Programs in early childhood schools, conducts Camps and Workshops & runs the highly regarded annual Art Season of unique, interactive and raw art events, plays and musicals for children ages 3 to 8 years old.
